(By Associated Press)
HELSINGFORS, May 1.—The Bolsheviks are evacuating Petrograd, reports received last night from a reliable source say. Many inhabitants are being sent away and the Bolshevik government is rigorously attempting to prevent news of happenings at Olonez reaching the people.

ALLIES PRESSING THE BOLSHIEVIKI

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, May 1.—Along the Murmansk railway the Bolshevik troops have withdrawn to new positions under allied pressure. A Russian wireless reporting the withdrawal, says the Bolsheviks were advanced on from south of Archangel and driven by Siberians 25 miles on the eastern front.

authorities and consented to disperse. When the labor committee inside heard a soldier's bugle shrilling the "march to arms," and learned what was occurring they decided to confine their program to singing.

TEN YEARS FOR A BANK CASHIER

(By Associated Press)
SACRAMENTO, May 1.—Frank Brush, cashier of the Santa Rosa National bank pleaded guilty in the United States district court today on the charge of embezzling $240,000 funds of the bank. He was sentenced to ten years in a Federal penitentiary. He told the court he delivered to receivers of the bank property he considered worth more than $400,000 to cover speculation losses.

Fernando Somoray, son-in-law of the late former president of Honduras, Harold Loughery and William Grant, the latter two assistant cashiers, pleaded guilty to similar charges. The federal attorney told the court that the report of the bank examiner showed a defalcation aggregating $1,036,000 since 1916.

Defendant's attorneys claimed some of these losses were caused by "poor banking judgment that could not be construed as criminal."

RING OF STEEL CIRCLES MUNICH

One Sent to Smoot Is Returned to New York For Want of Postage

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 1.—The police have received information from a naval intelligence officer that the construction of the bomb sent through the mails showed a resemblance in operation and principal to a type of German mines the navy found off the coasts. The belief is expressed that they were possibly imported from Germany. Two more bombs, one addressed to Senator Smoot, and the other to an unknown addressee in Utah were returned to Gimbel's department store for additional postage, and innocently remailed Tuesday by a shipping clerk, according to post-office authorities.

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 1.—Authorities are attempting to trace the authors of the terrorist plot and guard against the "Reds" boast of a country-wide May Day surprise, following the frustration yesterday of a nation-wide bomb conspiracy. Thirty-six bombs have been delivered or intercepted in various cities. Postmarks indicated that the packages sent were intended to reach their destinations on or about May first. The packages were identified as sent from New York. The authorities warned all postmasters throughout the country that others may have been sent from other cities. It is predicted that the haunts of the Reds will be invaded and all radicals deported. It is understood that the officials will terminate the leniency toward anarchists.

JAPANESE WILL PROTECT CHINA

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, May 1.—All German rights of Kiau Chau and Shantung province have been transferred to Japan without reserve, according to an agreement of the council of three which was reached last night. Japan has voluntarily pledged to restore Shantung to Chinese sovereignty and retain only the economic privileges granted to Germany and rights to establish a settlement at Tientsin.

CHINESE KICK ON KIAO CHAU

(By Associated Press)
PEKING, May 1.—The Chinese parliament yesterday adopted a resolution protesting to the delegates of the five great powers in Paris against transferring control of Kiau Chau to Japan with the request that it be restored directly to China. They asked that concessions in connection with the Kiau Chau, Tien Tsin railway and protocols of agreement relative to Kiau Chau and Tientsin Chifu and other extensions of the Kiau Chau railway be cancelled.

BOMBS SENT TO SPY CHAIRMAN

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 1.—Postmaster Salisbury of North Carolina, telegraphs the department today announcing the receipt of a bomb package similar to those found in New York, addressed to Senator Overman, acting chairman of the judiciary committee, who had charge of the espionage act and many other law enforcement measures during the war. Mr. Overman is also chairman of the special committee investigating pro-German and other radical propaganda. The bomb sent Senator Overman at Salisbury, N. C., probably would have been opened as a wedding present had it reached the residence last night, as two of the senators daughters were married last night.
